Michael- March 19 and 20 do not work for EPA, but we are attempting to identify workable dates shortly thereafter. As soon as we identify some alternatives, we'll let you know. Thanks. -David

David,

Next week isn't good for us, but the afternoon of March 19, or anytime on March 20, should be fine.

Michael- To help us prepare the United States' reply to Global's March 2 settlement offer, we have a couple of questions, mostly technical, that we'd like to discuss. Is the Global team available for a call next week, preferably on Thursday afternoon, starting at 1:30 or thereabouts? Thanks. -David
